Company Overview

Global Recovery Alliance AG specializes in international credit management & insolvency debt collections

Global Recovery provides an English speaking, single point of contact for American, Canadian and other international clients around the world who are seeking for an advice and cost efficient solutions for international insolvency debt collection issues.

Global Recovery has many languages and nationalities (G1) in-house at the head office in Germany. This in-house expertise is backed up by a "one and only" network of 30 party agents, lawyers, accountants and governmental contacts in many of national countries around the world.

The main areas

Global Recovery's specialization can be broadly classed as follows:

- International travel & medical insurance
- Government & airlines regulations
- International real estate & mortgages
- Electric insurance and claims
- Non contractual disputes

A large variety of other special services such as general investigation, due dilligence & verification reports in many states and a partnership of international legal services expand the international services offered by Global Recovery.

Global Recovery actively adheres to a strict code of practice and maintains strong relationships and partnerships with relevant regulatory bodies nationwide such as the American Bar Association (ABA) and the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and the multiple San Jose Program. As the majority of Global Recovery's clients are healthcare providers, Global Recovery is actively aware of the sensitive nature of medical debt collection.

Global Recovery charges for its services on a % contingency fee basis. If Global Recovery is unsuccessful in obtaining an outcome that your organization agrees with Global Recovery, no charge is made.
